Scott Weitekamp was present to talk about his bar, the Crow's Mill. Last week there was an underage sting and his employee was caught serving an underage patron. He said he has let that person go. He also showed the committee, about 15 fake IDs that his business has confiscated in the last month. He wants the committee to know that he is working very hard and diligently to not be a troublesome bar and keep the under age kids out of there. He has talked with his staff and now has a new policy that every patron will be carded, and if they are 21 or older, they will get a stamp on their hand. No one will be served alcohol unless they have a stamp. Weitekamp thanked the committee for their time.

After Mr. Weitekamp left, Trustin asked the committee what they think about the Crow's Mill issue. Fraase says the owner seems to be trying and hasn't had a prior issue with it. He recommends a warning. Fulgenzi made a motion to give the Crow's Mill a warning and Tjelmeland seconded. Motion carried (10-0) Harrison will send out a stern warning letter to them. Gab wants to look at the letter before it goes out.
